

Sullivan South Band Boosters Meeting
December 1, 2009

Kathy Futch called the meeting to order.
Minutes from the last meeting approved.

Treasurer's report- Angela Masters reported that the band fees are still down but we are working on this.

Fruit sales are ahead of budget.

Concessions still have some outstanding bills but we are hopeful to make budget this year.

Old Business- Winter drumline is on its way. Guard and drumline are painting their mats at this time. The first drumline fee payment is due today with the second payment due on January 18.

Fruit sales went great today. Cheesecake sales tomorrow at the concession stand. Kathy Futch will over see this distribution of cheesecake.

Fundraiser-January 25 from 6:30-8:00 Ms. Trent will have a Mary Kay party. This will be a fundraiser for the band.

Anyone with damaged magnets for car stickers please give them to Jennifer Swayne. Several complaints have been made about the quality of these products.

New Business- Christmas concert will be December 15 with refreshments to follow. This concert will be video taped for purchase.

December 14 we will decorate for the Christmas concert at 5:30.

Spring Trip- Packets sent out today about the spring trip to Disney. The price for the trip is $525.00. This includes a meal ticket that assures the students 2 meals a day.

The date for Winter Guard fees will be announced soon. The cost is the same as drumline.

Dinner with the Jazz Band- April 24, 2010 the South Jazz band will host a fine dinning evening with the Jazz Band performing at the Colonial Heights United Methodist Church. More information will be available about this evening.

Meeting adjourned.
